

TERMINAL DISCLAIMER TO OBVIATE A DOUBLE PATENTING REJECTION

In re Application of: Mays
Application No.: 10/706,119
Filed: 11/11/2003
Title: AN OBTURATOR SYSTEM FOR FILING A ROOT CANAL
AND METHOD OF USE THEREOF

The Inventor, Ralph C. Mays, by and through his attorney of record, in the instant application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 USC 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of prior Patent No. 6,644,972. The inventor hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patent are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the inventor does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 USC 154 to 156 and 173 of the prior patent, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that it later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR 1 321, has all claims cancelled by a reexamination certificate, is reissued, or is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these
